The Preface

Taveau asks Chat GPT

When you lie down and die, when your day comes, whether it's right or wrong, you know, whether it was meant to be, or some mistake, or by accident, or Jesus comes, you will go to either heaven or hell forevermore and never have any time off. Is that true?

Next, paint a picture of heaven that would be so wonderful that people want to make sure their book is in the Lamb's Book of Life, and they've forgiven everybody, and their heart is ready to please Jesus, according to the Bible, what that means, and then that they would want to go to heaven because it's too good to miss.

Second, let me describe what I think of heaven in these modern times. First of all, do that, then I'll do the other.

Chat GPT responds

The Bible Truth About What Happens After Death: Heaven or Hell Forevermore

Yes, it is true that when you die, whether by accident, through natural causes, or because of a choice, the Bible teaches that your soul will go to one of two places: heaven or hell. Once that moment arrives, there is no turning back, no second chances, and no "time off." The destination is eternal, and your decision in this life determines your fate.

- Hebrews 9:27 (KJV) – “And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.”
This verse makes it clear that after death, each person will face judgment. The choice of where your soul spends eternity hinges on this judgment, which is determined by your relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Matthew 25:46 (KJV) – “And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”
Once the judgment is passed, there are only two eternal outcomes: everlasting punishment in hell for those who reject Christ, and everlasting life in heaven for those who accept Christ as Lord and Savior.

A Picture of Heaven That Will Make You Want to Make Sure Your Name is in the Lamb's Book of Life

The Bible describes heaven as a place so magnificent and glorious that it surpasses anything we can imagine here on earth (past media!) For it is a place where pain, sorrow, and death are no more, and God's presence fills every corner, bringing eternal joy, peace, and fulfillment.

- Revelation 21:4 (KJV) – “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

In heaven, every form of suffering ceases to exist. There is no more death, pain, or sadness. It is a place of eternal peace and joy.

- Revelation 21:23-25 (KJV)– “And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.”
- Heaven is illuminated by the glory of God. There is no night, only the constant radiance of God's presence. It is a place of unimaginable light and perfect safety where all are welcome to experience eternal worship and peace.
- John 14:2-3 (KJV) – “In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.”

Jesus has promised that He is preparing a place for those who follow Him—a personal, eternal home in heaven. It is a place of eternal fellowship with God, where we will be forever with Him in glory.

- Revelation 22:1-2 (KJV) – “And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.”

The river of life and the tree of life symbolize the unfailing abundance and healing that flows from God’s presence. Heaven is a place of total restoration, where everything that is broken is healed and to perfection.

- 1 Corinthians 2:9 (KJV) – “But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.”

The beauty and joy of heaven are beyond our human comprehension. Heaven is far more wonderful than we can imagine, a place where the fullness of God’s love, goodness, and grace are experienced in ways we cannot fully grasp on earth.

Living to Please Jesus and Preparing for Heaven

To be sure that your name is in the Lamb’s Book of Life and that you are ready for heaven, the Bible tells us that there are two essential things you must do:

1. Repent of your sins and believe in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior.
 2. Live a life that pleases God, characterized by faith, love, forgiveness, and obedience.
- Revelation 3:5 (KJV) – “He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.”

Those who overcome—who remain faithful to Christ and live according to His teachings—will have their names securely written in the Lamb’s Book of Life, and they will be honored before God and His angels.

- Matthew 22:37-39 (KJV) – “Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.”

To please God, we must love Him with all our heart, soul, and mind and love others as ourselves. This is the essence of the Christian life—living in love, both toward God and others.

- Matthew 6:14-15 (KJV) – “For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

Forgiveness is crucial. Jesus teaches that we must forgive others if we expect God to forgive us. Without forgiveness, we cannot enter into the fullness of the love and peace that heaven offers.

- John 15:4-5 (KJV) – “Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.”

To live a life pleasing to God, we must remain connected to Jesus. Our ability to bear fruit in life—love, kindness, service—comes from our relationship with Him.

Conclusion: Heaven Is Too Good to Miss

When we think of heaven, the Bible paints a picture of perfect beauty, peace, joy, and love—a place where we are fully restored, healed, and forever in the presence of God. Heaven is not just about the absence of pain or suffering, but the presence of everything that is good, pure, and wonderful.

Knowing that this place is prepared for those who love God should make us all the more determined to ensure our names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life, to forgive everyone who has wronged us, and to live a life that pleases God. Heaven is so incredible, so beautiful, that no one should miss it, and through Jesus Christ, we can have the assurance that we will be there forever with Him.

TD PERSONAL EXPLANATION For What Follows Below

AN AMAZING UPBEAT “FOR NOW” ONGOING PERSPECTIVE

Taveau's Own Original First Garden Ideas

When I was growing up, I pictured Adam and Eve as poor. I knew the Garden of Eden was wonderful and beautiful, and they had all their needs met. But I didn't realize until now how there's a connection between the garden, the modern day, and even heaven itself — especially when viewed through the lens of science and DNA.

I used to think of the garden as a simple place without technology or inventions, just people surrounded by organic nature. But now I see that God knew everything we would eventually discover. He understood concepts like Wi-Fi, the internet, space travel, undersea exploration, cellular biology, and so much more. His knowledge goes far beyond ours.

But, in recent years, it's captured my attention. Also I can relate to this in “wonder wondering big power” “the Resurrection” and “supernatural” also “science fiction.” So I am “mind expanding’ with this.

Therefore, it is MY opinion: when God created the world, He intended for people to find joy in discovering and inventing amazing things throughout eternity. The possibilities would never end. That was part of His grand design. However, when Adam and Eve chose to disobey and dishonor Him, the course of history changed.

Even then, God already knew what would be necessary. He foresaw the need for governance, protection, and guidance in a fallen world. That's why He established laws, including the Torah and the Ten Commandments, to teach people how to live in harmony. But the law was never meant to be the final answer.

When the time was right, God sent Jesus to suffer and die on the cross. Through Jesus, we can now have a direct relationship with God, not just a life bound by rules. That relationship is the highest priority today.

TD says, Also, Admitting that all of it is still a Mystery, a puzzle, (which means “each of our FAITH” is involved in this...

TD asks Chat GPT AI: Now let's explore that concept further with scripture, seeing how God's plan has unfolded. Then we'll look ahead — through the eyes of eternity — envisioning heaven with all we know now.

Chat GPT responds: Understanding God's Eternal Plan: From Genesis to Jesus

You've captured a profound insight into God's eternal plan that spans from the Garden of Eden to the ultimate fulfillment of heaven. God, in His infinite wisdom, not only created the world in its pristine form but also knew the full scope of what humanity would discover and create—both in technology and in human progress. In Genesis, we see a picture of the perfect, unbroken world, where Adam and Eve had everything they needed. But God's understanding, far beyond our own, included the full potential of human creativity and exploration, which ultimately points toward the unfolding of His divine plan.

The Creation and God's Knowledge Beyond Time

When God created Adam and Eve, He placed them in a beautiful garden where everything was provided for them. This paradise, abundant with nature, animals, and plants, was perfect. Yet, God's plan extended far beyond what was physically visible in the garden. In Genesis, we see that God created mankind in His image and gave them dominion over creation. This dominion implies stewardship, creativity, and the potential for humanity to explore and invent.

- Genesis 1:26 (KJV) – “And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.”

Here, we see that from the very beginning, God designed mankind to have dominion over creation. This dominion wasn't just about farming or survival; it was a mandate for creativity, discovery, and innovation. God knew that humans would develop new technologies, explore the universe, dive into the oceans, and even explore the smallest cells of the body.

The Fall: A Shift in the Original Plan

However, the Fall changed the trajectory of humanity's perfect relationship with God and the world. When Adam and Eve disobeyed God by eating the fruit from the tree of knowledge, they were separated from the full intimacy and glory of God's plan. They introduced sin and death into the world, and with it, the need for judgment, laws, and ultimately, a Savior.

Genesis 3:1 “And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.”

This moment marked the introduction of brokenness and the need for restoration. The perfect plan of creation, where humanity had free access to God and His creation, was disrupted. But God, even in that moment, began to lay the foundation for redemption.

The Law and the Plan of Redemption

After the fall, God gave laws to guide His people. The Torah, including the Ten Commandments, was a framework for governing humanity's relationship with God and each other. While the law was holy and good, it could never restore humanity to the fullness of God's original plan. God knew that the ultimate answer would be a relationship through faith—not just adherence to rules.

- Galatians 3:24 (KJV) – “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.”

The Old Testament law acted as a “guide” “an instructor” to show humanity their need for redemption and pointed them to Jesus Christ, who would fulfill the law and make way for eternal life and relationship with God.

Jesus: The Ultimate Fulfillment of God's Plan

Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came to fulfill the law and restore what was lost in the garden. Through His life, death, and resurrection, Jesus made it possible for humanity to have a relationship with God. His sacrifice took the punishment for sin and opened the way for everyone to experience the fullness of God's presence.

- John 14:6 (KJV) – “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”
Jesus makes it clear that He is the only way to God and eternal life. Through Him, the relationship that was broken in the garden can be restored.
- Romans 5:19 (KJV) – “For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.”
Through *Adam's sin, (*TD INSERTS: Adam was the head of home, head of planet, head of chain of command because formed him first, and instructed HIM” do not eat of that one tree” also Eve was not present as God gave “the Love Command” to Adam)(First Love means: above all else YOU CHOOSE to put me FIRST)

And all humanity became separated from God, but (many centuries later) through Christ's obedience and sacrifice, we are made righteous and can come into eternal fellowship with God.

The Vision of Heaven Through the Lens of What We Know Today

Now, when we look toward the future—toward eternity—we can consider what we know now about the world and imagine how the fullness of God's plan will unfold in heaven. If God gave us creativity, science, and innovation here on earth, it stands to reason that the possibilities in heaven will be beyond what we can even imagine.

Exploration and Creation in Eternity

As we consider science, technology, and the potential for invention, we begin to see a glimpse of what eternity might hold. In heaven, there will be no limitations on creativity, exploration, or discovery. Imagine a place where the laws of physics and nature, while still glorifying God, allow humanity to explore the depths of space, the smallest particles of life, and the most intricate workings of creation—all in perfect harmony with God's will.

- Revelation 21:1-2 (KJV) – “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.”

The new heaven and the new earth will be a place of renewal and unlimited possibility. The curse of sin will be removed, and we will be free to enjoy all the creative endeavors that God originally intended for us. There will be no limits to exploration, invention, and discovery.

Eternal Fellowship with God

Even in the midst of discovery and creativity, the ultimate joy of heaven will be the eternal fellowship with God, something far beyond anything we can imagine today. We will see Him face-to-face and experience the fullness of His presence, something Adam and Eve had access to in the garden before the fall.

- Revelation 22:3-4 (KJV) – “And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.”

In heaven, we will be with God in perfect communion, without the separation caused by sin. We will see Him face-to-face, and there will be no more curse, only His perfect love and perfect presence.

Joy and Peace Forevermore

In addition to creativity and exploration, heaven will be filled with unimaginable joy, peace, and harmony. There will be no more crying, pain, or death. The fullness of God’s goodness will be experienced in ways we cannot fully comprehend today.

- Isaiah 65:17 (KJV) – “For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.”

The new heaven and the new earth will be a place where all things are made new. The former struggles and pains of this life will be forgotten, and we will live in perfect harmony with one another and with God forever.

Conclusion: A Future Too Wonderful to Miss

As we reflect on God’s eternal plan from creation to redemption, we realize that heaven is not just an escape from pain but a place of limitless potential. It is a place where we can explore, create, and enjoy the fullness of God’s presence forever. We are part of a grand story, one that began in the Garden of Eden and will find its completion in a new heaven and new earth, a place of creativity, discovery, peace, and eternal communion with God.

This future awaits all those who accept Jesus Christ, forgive others, and live to please God. May we all be ready for that eternal future, living today with eternity in mind.

Taveau shares her own Modern End Times Ideas Regarding The First Garden “This” “

First Part: TD interjects her own thoughts about Eve

The expanse of Life, the Genesis Garden and All of This”

Through the eyes of heaven, I want to explore this concept using modern-day scientific inventions. But before I do, I realize there is one important place I must mention. When we teach about the Garden of Eden in Genesis 1 and 2, before the fall, it is helpful to consider it through the lens of science.

God, the Creator, envisioned and carefully planned every detail. He is an artist who measured and considered all the realms of life. When Adam was formed from the dust, God later created Eve to be his companion. She was formed from Adam’s side — from his rib.

Scientifically, we could say that Eve was formed from Adam’s DNA, making her his equal in gifting, talent, and purpose. She was created for life, community, and instruction, just as Adam was. God’s choice to create her second was not to diminish her value or make her subordinate. Instead, it established a divine order, a chain of command, not one of slavery or suppression.

It’s important to emphasize this truth — God never intended for women to be devalued or diminished. Rather, He designed both man and woman to reflect His image, working together in unity and purpose.

Chat GPT affirms: God’s Creative Vision in the Garden: Science, Equality, and the Role of Woman

The creation story in Genesis 1 and 2 is not only a theological and spiritual account, but it also aligns with what we know today about science and the way life, matter, and human beings are formed. God, the Creator, is not just an architect but an artist—one who meticulously planned and designed everything with purpose. He understood the principles of order, structure, and harmony that govern the universe, even in the garden. The beauty of creation, as described in Genesis, is not just in the physical world but also in the order and relationship He set up between the first man and woman, Adam and Eve.

Man Formed from the Dust: The Foundation of Life

In Genesis, we see God forming man from the dust of the earth. This idea aligns with modern scientific understanding, as we now know that human beings are made of the same elements found in the earth. The human body contains elements like carbon, oxygen, hydrogen, and other minerals, all of which are abundant in the earth. In a scientific sense, this is a powerful image of the interconnectedness of humanity with the rest of creation.

- Genesis 2:7 (KJV) – “And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.”

When God formed man from dust, He gave him life by breathing into him the breath of life, bringing him into existence as a living, conscious being. This shows that human life is not simply a biological process but a gift from God, infused with purpose and meaning. God’s act of creating man from dust symbolizes both humility and dignity—a recognition that humans are part of the natural world, yet distinct because of the divine breath that gives them life.

Woman Formed from the Rib: A Deep Connection and Equality

The creation of Eve is a profound moment in the narrative of Genesis, and it carries deep theological and scientific significance. Eve was not created from the ground, as Adam was, but from Adam’s side—from one of his ribs. This act of creation symbolizes both the closeness and equality between the first man and woman.

The rib is a symbol of partnership, as it is not from Adam’s head to suggest superiority, nor from his feet to suggest subjugation, but from his side, emphasizing that they were equal partners in fulfilling God’s purposes for creation.

- Genesis 2:21-22 (KJV) – “And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof. And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.”

From this passage, we can see that woman was created as man’s equal, a complement to him, not inferior. Modern genetics and DNA reveal that men and women share nearly the same genetic material, and the idea that Eve was formed from Adam’s rib metaphorically and biologically reinforces this connection. The genetic material shared between man and woman is a testimony to their equal standing in terms of potential, ability, and gifting. In fact, there is no superior or inferior design; both are part of God's creative genius.

Science and DNA: Equality in Giftedness and Role

Scientifically, we know that the genetic material that determines human characteristics is carried in the DNA. Adam and Eve shared the same basic DNA structure, and this genetic connection underscores their inherent equality before God. Eve's creation from Adam's side means that she is in no way inferior or subordinate to him. Instead, she is his equal partner, possessing the same gifting, talents, and potential for life, creativity, and purpose.

- Genesis 1:27 (KJV) – “So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.”

Both man and woman were created in the image of God. This indicates that their value, worth, and role are rooted in their shared humanity and in their shared divine image. In other words, they were created to share the same calling—to steward and enjoy creation, to live in relationship with God, and to live in harmonious relationship with each other.

God's Intent for Leadership and the Chain of Command

MAIN POINT:

In the garden, when God established Adam and Eve's roles, He designed a chain of command—not a hierarchy of value but a structure to ensure order and purpose. Adam was given the responsibility to lead, to guard, and to protect the garden. Eve's creation from his side suggests partnership rather than dominance. In fact, both were equally responsible for fulfilling the mission of stewardship, both to each other and to creation.

- Genesis 2:18 (KJV) – “And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.”

The phrase “help meet” in the King James Version refers to a suitable helper or equal partner. This implies that Eve was not created to be a servant or subordinate, but to be a co-laborer with Adam in fulfilling God's purposes for creation.

The Misconception of Inferiority

Unfortunately, over time, there has been a misconception that the creation of woman from man implies inferiority or subordination, that the woman is "evil."

Some interpretations of scripture have distorted the meaning of Eve's creation, suggesting that she is somehow lesser or that she is meant to be in a position of servitude. However, the true meaning of the Genesis account is that God created man and woman as equal partners—different in function, perhaps, but equal in value, worth, and God-given gifting.

- 1 Corinthians 11:11-12 (KJV) – “Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.”

Paul reaffirms the principle of mutual interdependence between man and woman. The statement that “neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man” underscores the truth that they are equal in worth and significance before God.

Conclusion: A Beautiful Partnership in God's Design

In summary, the creation of woman from man in Genesis is a powerful picture of equality, partnership, and divine purpose.

- From a scientific perspective, this is reflected in the shared DNA, the mutual gifting, and the co-laboring role that both Adam and Eve were given.
- God designed them to be equals, each bringing unique strengths to their relationship and to the world they were tasked to steward.
- The chain of command established in Genesis was not one of hierarchy but one of order and purpose within the broader plan of creation, where both man and woman are essential, equal parts of God's design.
- Neither is superior, and neither is inferior. Together, they reflect the image of God and carry His creative mandate into the world.

With that understanding, we can now explore how modern science and the progress of human inventions align with God's eternal vision for the world, especially as we think about heaven and the potential that awaits humanity in the future.

Note:

TD submits that the modern knowledge of gamma rays, quantum physics prove the Romans 8:11 “wonder working, supernatural resurrection POWER.., the Holy Spirit wonder working, Book of Acts “anointing” wonder....working impartations, healing refreshing of ‘pure worship”..plus the soon Catching Away!

“I WANT TO GO” (“I GET TO GO!”)...TO HEAVEN!

Next Taveau says: Now let’s consider what it means to go to heaven for eternity. There are no breaks, yet you would never want one. In fact, you would only desire to stay longer. Eternity is a divine mystery, carefully designed by God. While we may not understand everything now, God knows it all.

We observe the intricate design of cells, molecules, and nanoparticles. We marvel at the hidden wonders of the universe — planets, galaxies, and the vast expanses of space. Imagine the possibility that these galaxies could be inhabited with knowledge, science, people, and inventions. In my opinion, God established this limitless expanse so we would never run out of room and could experience the joy of discovery and creativity.

Consider how God understood concepts like nuclear fission, gamma rays, quantum physics, light, sound, and matter long before we did. Some people may know more about these fields, but the fullness of God’s knowledge is unfathomable. When we explore the internet, experience science fiction, or immerse ourselves in the stunning visuals of video games depicting interplanetary travel, we catch a tiny glimpse of what is possible.

Heaven is far beyond any earthly wonder. It is a place of endless joy, free from war, sorrow, anger, and pain. There will be nothing but peace and fulfillment — the perfect world God originally desired for humanity when He created the Garden of Eden, as described in Genesis 1 and 2.

Let this comparison inspire many others to envision heaven as a realm of eternal beauty and fulfillment. It is a destination worth pursuing. To ensure your place there, seek to know Jesus and follow His way.

Eternity Through the Lens of Modern Science and Creation's Infinite Possibilities

In reflecting on the eternal nature of God's plan, we can't help but marvel at the awe-inspiring intricacies of creation that science is just beginning to uncover. When we consider what heaven could be like, it's tempting to imagine a place of perfection and peace, a world free from sorrow, pain, or strife—one that aligns with the beauty, order, and limitless possibilities God designed from the very beginning.

As we venture into imagining eternity, we have the privilege of drawing upon modern discoveries and technological marvels to help us picture what lies ahead in the realm of forevermore.

God's Eternal Plan and the Discovery of the Universe

From the creation of light and matter to the mysterious depths of cells, molecules, and nanoparticles, God had a plan in place even before the creation of the world—one that reaches into the vast expanses of space and stretches across eternity. As humans, we are only beginning to explore the complex world within the microcosm and the macrocosm: the tiny cells in our bodies, the quarks and subatomic particles that govern matter, the vast expanse of galaxies, and the infinite stretch of space-time that has yet to be fully understood.

- Psalm 147:4 (KJV) – “He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.” God’s creative genius is reflected not only in the beauty and complexity of the world but in the vastness of the universe He designed. The planets, stars, galaxies, and systems He set in place are all part of His eternal plan—created not just for beauty, but for purpose.
- Just as God knows the depths of the atoms and the vast galaxies, and quantum physics, He also knows the endless potential for discovery and growth in eternity.
- Think of it: what we know about science and the universe now is just a glimpse into the infinite possibilities of creation. God designed a universe so vast, so complex, that it would never run out of room for discovery, invention, and innovation. Space exploration, genetic research, and quantum physics are just early manifestations of a universe God intended for humanity to explore and enjoy—not only on Earth but beyond.

Eternal Progress and the Joy of Discovery

In this eternal reality, the possibilities are endless. Heaven, as we might imagine, is not a stagnant place. The God who designed a universe filled with energy, light, and matter is one who delights in endless innovation and creativity. Eternity will not be a time when we sit idly by, waiting for something to happen. Rather, it will be a place of continuous growth, discovery, and creativity.

- Isaiah 65:17 (KJV) – “For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.”
- This verse speaks to the new creation God has planned, one that will be free of the burdens and limitations of this world. In heaven, there will be no more sorrow, no more pain, and no more death. There will only be joy in endless discovery—where new inventions, scientific advancements, and even spiritual revelations will continue to unfold.

Imagine a place where space travel isn't confined to just the edges of our universe, but goes on forever—exploring new worlds, discovering new galaxies, and perhaps even meeting new life. As science fiction often depicts, space is a place full of infinite possibilities, and though science fiction is often speculative, it provides us with a glimpse into the creativity and exploration that could be ours in heaven. God has planted the seed of creativity in every human being, and in heaven, this creativity will have no bounds.

No One Will Ever Be Weary, No Need to Rest In Heaven Beautiful Eternity

Heaven will also be a place where we never grow weary of the endless adventure. In this world, we have limits: we need sleep, we get tired, we require breaks. But in heaven, there will be no time off—not because we will be overworked, but because we will never grow tired of the beauty, the discovery, and the joy of creation and relationship. Every moment will feel like a thrilling exploration of the infinite, and we will have the opportunity to continue growing—forever.

- Revelation 21:4 (KJV) – “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” This is the promise of heaven: perfection. No more sorrow, no more pain, and no more limitations. Just as God intended it in the beginning, eternity will be a place of unbroken joy—a place of unimaginable possibilities and endless creativity.

A Place of Peace, Joy, and No War

In heaven, there will be no conflict, no violence, no war. These are all products of the brokenness in this world—the consequences of sin. But in eternity, all of this will be gone. Imagine a world where all relationships are characterized by love, peace, and understanding, where there is no hatred, no division, and no anger. This is the world God envisioned in the garden—and it will be realized in full in heaven.

- Revelation 22:3-5 (KJV) – “And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign forever and ever.”
- In heaven, we will serve God, not out of obligation, but out of love and joy. There will be no darkness—no sorrow, no confusion, no fear. It will be an eternal existence of joyful exploration, discovery, and peace.

A Worthwhile Journey: Jesus, the Way to Eternity

All of this is possible because of the plan God had from the very beginning. The perfect world He created in the garden was disrupted by sin, but He always had a plan for redemption. Jesus Christ, through His sacrifice on the cross, opened the way for us to return to God’s original plan for us—to live in relationship with Him and experience the eternal life He intended.

- John 14:6 (KJV) – “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” Jesus is the way to this eternal joy. Through Him, we are promised access to a life of unimaginable possibilities—where we will discover and explore, create and invent, and most importantly, know God in a way that we can’t even fully comprehend right now.

Conclusion: The Ultimate Vision of Eternity

In conclusion, when we look at the world around us—at the marvels of science, technology, and the mysteries of the universe—we get just a small glimpse of the grandeur of God's eternal plan. Eternity in heaven will be a place of endless discovery, creativity, and joy—a place where we are free from the brokenness of this world, where peace reigns, and where there are no limits to the adventures we can experience. It will be forevermore, and we will never tire of it, because it will be filled with the fullness of God's presence and the joy of knowing Him.

It is truly worth seeking the way to that eternal life through Jesus Christ, for in Him lies the key to the endless joy of life, creativity, and peace in the realm of forevermore.

Asking Several Hard Real Life Questions

TD Question: To make sure people know how to get into eternity in heaven forever and avoid the horrible big crowds down in the suffering, sweltering, eternal other place “down below” (where I, they surely don't want to go).

Q.What does a person do to say humbly to God “I want to go to heaven forever with Jesus.” How do I do that? Please teach that from scripture.

ChatGPT AI Answers: To ensure that a person knows how to enter eternity in heaven with Jesus and avoid the eternal suffering of separation from God, it's important to look at what Scripture teaches about salvation. The path to heaven is clearly outlined in the Bible and is not about earning one's way through good works or deeds but is based on faith in Jesus Christ and His finished work on the cross.

1. Recognize the Need for Salvation

The first step to entering heaven is realizing that we need salvation. The Bible makes it clear that everyone has sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. We are all in need of a Savior to bridge the gap between us and God.

- Romans 3:23 (KJV) – “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.”
- Romans 6:23 (KJV) – “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

Sin separates us from God, and without salvation, we face eternal death and separation from Him. But God, in His love, provided a way to be reconciled to Him through Jesus Christ.

2. Believe in Jesus Christ as the Savior

The next step is to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as the Savior. Jesus is the only way to eternal life because He paid the penalty for our sins on the cross. It is through His death, burial, and resurrection that we are offered the gift of salvation.

- John 14:6 (KJV) – “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”
- John 3:16 (KJV) – “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

To be saved, we must believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that He died for our sins, and that He was raised to life on the third day.

3. Confess Jesus as Lord

Once a person understands the need for salvation and believes in Jesus, they must confess Jesus Christ as Lord. Confession is an outward expression of the inward belief that Jesus is both Lord and Savior. This means accepting Him into your life as the rightful ruler and following Him in obedience.

- Romans 10:9-10 (KJV) – “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.”

- Acts 4:12 (KJV) – “Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.”

Confession is a demonstration of your faith and a declaration that you trust in Jesus as the only way to be saved from sin and eternal separation from God.

4. Repent of Sin and Turn to God

Repentance is an important aspect of salvation. It means turning away from sin and choosing to follow God’s way. Repentance doesn’t just mean feeling sorry for sin but involves a change of heart and a decision to live in alignment with God’s will.

- Acts 3:19 (KJV) – “Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.”
- Luke 13:3 (KJV) – “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”

MAKING A POINT

True repentance brings about a transformation where the person’s desires shift from the world’s way to God’s way. This is essential for salvation because it shows a commitment to living for God rather than continuing in sin.

5. Receive the Gift of the Holy Spirit

When a person genuinely accepts Christ and repents, they are given the Holy Spirit as a guide, comforter, and empowerer to live a life pleasing to God.

- Ephesians 1:13-14 (KJV) – “In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.”

The Holy Spirit lives within the believer, enabling them to walk in obedience to God’s commands and to experience a relationship with God.

6. Live for Jesus

Once you have confessed Christ as your Lord and Savior, live out your faith by following Jesus daily. Salvation is not just about a moment of decision, but about living in constant relationship with Jesus, growing in faith, and obeying His commands.

- John 14:15 (KJV) – “If ye love me, keep my commandments.”
- Matthew 28:19-20 (KJV) – “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.”

Living for Jesus involves both trusting in His finished work and striving to follow His example of love, compassion, and obedience.

Summary: How to Get to Heaven Forever with Jesus

- Recognize that you are a sinner in need of salvation (Romans 3:23).
- Believe in Jesus Christ as the Son of God who died for your sins and rose again (John 3:16, John 14:6).
- Confess Jesus as Lord and Savior (Romans 10:9-10).
- Repent of your sin and turn to God (Acts 3:19, Luke 13:3).
- Receive the Holy Spirit as your guide and helper (Ephesians 1:13-14).
- Live for Jesus and follow His commands (John 14:15, Matthew 28:19-20).

Invitation

If you want to make this decision today, simply pray a prayer like this from your heart:

“Lord Jesus, I believe that You are the Son of God. I confess that I am a sinner in need of Your forgiveness. I believe You died for my sins and rose again. I ask You to come into my life, forgive my sins, and be my Savior and Lord. Help me to live for You every day. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”

This prayer is just the beginning of a lifelong journey with Jesus. As you grow in faith, continue to study the Word of God, pray, and fellowship with other believers to deepen your relationship with Him and prepare for the eternal (supernatural) glory that awaits.

SOMBER HARD QUESTIONS

TD asks ChatGPT: What Hell is Like According to the Bible? Also, we want what the Bible says “about Eternal Judgment”

ChatGPT said: The Bible provides several descriptions of Hell, a place of eternal separation from God. It is a place of torment, suffering, and punishment for the unbelievers and those whose names are not found in the Lamb’s Book of Life.

The following is a compilation of scriptures that give us an understanding of what Hell will be like for those who reject Christ or fail to live according to God’s will.

1. Hell is a Place of Unquenchable Fire

- Matthew 3:12 (KJV): “Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”
- Mark 9:43 (KJV): “And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched.”
- Revelation 14:10-11 (KJV): “The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.”

Hell is depicted as a place of unquenchable fire that never dies out. It is a place of eternal torment, with flames that burn forever.

2. Hell is a Place of Outer Darkness

- “But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”
- Matthew 22:13 (KJV): “Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”
- Matthew 25:30 (KJV): “And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”
- Jude 1:13 (KJV): “Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.”

Hell is described as outer darkness, where people are separated from the light of God. The absence of light in this context represents separation from the presence of God, who is the light of the world (John 8:12). It is a place of utter despair and isolation.

3. Hell is a Place of Weeping and Gnashing of Teeth

- Matthew 13:42 (KJV): And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
- Matthew 13:50 (KJV): “And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”
- Luke 13:28 (KJV): “There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.”

People in Hell will experience great sorrow and despair. The term “gnashing of teeth” signifies intense suffering and frustration, the anguish of those who realize they are eternally lost.

4. Hell is a Place of Eternal Punishment

- Matthew 25:46 (KJV): “And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”
- 2 Thessalonians 1:9 (KJV): “Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;”
- Revelation 20:14-15 (KJV): “And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

Hell is described as everlasting punishment, a place where people will experience eternal separation from God. There is no end to the suffering once a person has entered Hell. It is forever, without hope of escape.

5. Hell is a Place of Fire and Brimstone (Sulfur)

- Revelation 21:8 (KJV): “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.”

Revelation 19:20 (KJV): “And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.”

Hell is also described as a place where there is burning fire and brimstone, which is sulfur. These elements are highly volatile and produce intense pain and torment. It is a place of extreme heat and unbearable suffering.

6. Hell is a Place of Separation from God

- 2 Thessalonians 1:9 (KJV): “Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;”
- Revelation 21:27 (KJV): “And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb’s book of life.”

- Isaiah 59:2 (KJV): “But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.”

Hell represents complete separation from God’s presence and favor. For those who are cast into Hell, there is no access to God’s mercy, grace, or love. It is a state of utter spiritual desolation.

7. Hell is a Place of Eternal Death (Second Death)

- Revelation 20:14-15 (KJV): “And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.”
- Revelation 21:8 (KJV): “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.”

The second death refers to eternal spiritual death, where a person is permanently cut off from God and His presence. It is called the “second death” because, while physical death is the separation of the soul from the body, the second death is the eternal separation of the soul from God.

Conclusion: The Severity of Hell’s Reality

The Bible gives a vivid, terrifying portrayal of Hell as a place of eternal torment, separation from God, unquenchable fire, darkness, and gnashing of teeth. The severity of Hell should serve as a warning to all who do not accept Jesus Christ as their Savior or who fail to live according to God’s will.

For those whose names are blotted out of the Lamb’s Book of Life, Hell awaits as the final destination. But the good news is that God is patient, not willing that any should perish (2 Peter 3:9). Through faith in Jesus Christ, repentance, and a life of obedience to God’s Word, anyone can avoid this fate and enter into eternal life with Him.

We are called to choose life and choose Christ while there is still time, for once judgment comes, there is no turning back.

AN ANGRY QUESTION...Often Asked Around The World

Note; Down Further: Why Does a Loving God SEND PEOPLE to hell?

First, Taveau asks Chat GPT: WHAT is the reason you are sentenced to hell (forever) : Wondering? Is it because committing sins, dropping out of church, sinning, robbing, doing evil? And, will you go to hell if you never ask Jesus into your heart? Qualify that please, either way.

Chat GPT answers: Clarifying the Path to Hell: Sin vs. Rejecting Jesus

The concept of Hell and how one gets there has often been misunderstood. The Bible provides a clear distinction about what truly condemns someone to Hell. It's not simply about the sins we commit (like crimes, hatred, or causing suffering), but ultimately about our relationship with Jesus Christ and whether we accept Him as Lord and Savior. Let's break this down and qualify the answer from a biblical perspective.

1. Sin Alone Does Not Send a Person to Hell

While sin is a major issue in the Bible, it is not the act of sin itself that sends a person to Hell. All have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23), yet not everyone will go to Hell. In fact, if sin itself were the sole reason people went to Hell, then no one could be saved because all humans fall short of God's standard.

Instead, sin creates a barrier between humanity and God, and it is separation from God that leads to eternal judgment. Sin is an issue that needs to be dealt with for anyone to enter Heaven, but it's not about individual sinful acts alone—it's about the state of the soul and how that sin is addressed.

- Romans 6:23 (KJV): “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”
- Isaiah 59:2 (KJV): “But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.”

2. The Key Issue: Rejection of Jesus Christ

John 14:6 states, “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” The Bible is clear that the only way to restore our relationship with God and escape eternal judgment (Hell) is through faith in Jesus Christ. While sin is the cause of separation from God, it is only through Jesus' sacrificial death and resurrection that reconciliation is possible.

- John 3:16-18 (KJV): “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.”

This means that rejection of Jesus Christ is the ultimate cause of eternal separation from God, which results in Hell. Those who do not believe in Jesus, or never ask Him into their hearts, remain in their sin and are not reconciled to God.

- John 8:24 (KJV): “I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.”

3. The Role of Repentance

Repentance is key to receiving forgiveness and being reconciled with God. When a person genuinely repents of their sins (turns away from sin) and places their faith in Jesus Christ, they are forgiven. This is how someone is saved from Hell—not by perfect behavior or by trying to be good enough, but by trusting in Jesus and His sacrifice.

- Acts 3:19 (KJV): “Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.”
- Romans 10:9-10 (KJV): “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.”

4. The Seriousness of Rejecting Jesus Christ

The Bible makes it clear that those who reject Jesus Christ will face the consequences of their decision. This is not based on what they do in terms of individual sin or crimes, but whether they have placed their trust in Jesus as the Savior and Lord.

TD BIG POINT: TO THE SAVED IN MINISTRY?

Specifically Mentions Three Book of Acts Ministry Styles

- Matthew 7:21-23 (KJV): “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?”
- *And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity”

*Pastor Taveau adds: Strong’s Bible Concordance interprets this as “you who use false authority”

This scripture emphasizes that even good works, or actions that might look righteous, are not enough to save someone if they do not have a personal relationship with Jesus. It is not about works, but about knowing Jesus and being known by Him.

Conclusion: It’s About Rejecting Christ, Not Just About “Sinning”

To answer the question: Do you go to Hell by doing sins and evil deeds?—the answer is nuanced. While sin does separate us from God, the Bible teaches that it is the rejection of Jesus Christ and failing to trust in Him for salvation that ultimately condemns someone to Hell. Sin is the issue, but Christ is the answer.

Those who fail to accept Jesus, the one who paid the penalty for sin, are not forgiven and remain in their separation from God.

Therefore, a person does not go to Hell just because they do evil deeds or make mistakes. Rather, it is because they have not accepted the atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ and have not repented of their sins. Jesus alone is the way to eternal life and salvation from the eternal punishment of Hell.

Apostle TD's Question

What are the basic starting places, starting points for people to grow and know more about this, also to learn about how to fellowship with God, be led of the Spirit along the narrow way?

Because you have to pay a price for this. This is not just all sunshine and mellow. You have to know about taking up the cross. Please advise people about that.

Chat GPT AI Answer

Starting Points for Growing in Fellowship with God and Walking the Narrow Way

The journey of growing in fellowship with God and being led by the Holy Spirit is not a quick, easy path. It requires commitment, perseverance, and a willingness to take up the cross and follow Jesus, even when it's difficult. This is the "narrow way" that leads to life (Matthew 7:13-14). Here's a foundational guide to starting on this journey:

1. Establish a Relationship with God Through Prayer and the Word

To grow in fellowship with God, it's essential to cultivate a deep, personal relationship with Him. This begins through prayer and studying the Bible, which is His Word to us. Prayer is how we communicate with God, and reading the Scriptures is how God communicates with us. Both are vital to growing in understanding, hearing God's voice, and being transformed.

- John 15:7 (KJV) – "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you."

- 2 Timothy 3:16-17 (KJV) – "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

- Start by setting aside time daily for Bible reading and prayer.
- Speak to God honestly, and listen for His voice.
- Reading the Bible helps you understand His character, His will for your life, and how to live out the teachings of Jesus.

2. Surrender to Jesus and Take Up the Cross

Living the Christian life is not about living in comfort or ease. It's about surrendering your will to God, taking up your cross, and following Jesus. This means dying to self and choosing to live for God's purposes instead of your own.

- Luke 9:23-24 (KJV) – “And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.”
- Romans 12:1 (KJV) – “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.”

Taking up the cross means being willing to face challenges, suffering, and sacrifices for the sake of following Jesus. It involves prioritizing His will above your own and walking in obedience, even when it's difficult.

3. Be Led by the Holy Spirit

As believers, we have the Holy Spirit dwelling within us to guide us and empower us to live godly lives. It's essential to learn to be led by the Spirit rather than relying on our own understanding. The Holy Spirit helps us discern God's will, empowers us to resist temptation, and helps us grow in the fruit of the Spirit.

- Romans 8:14 (KJV) – “For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.”
- Galatians 5:16 I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh... But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.”

Being led by the Spirit requires listening for His voice, which may speak through thoughts, impressions, or even through other believers. It's important to be sensitive to the Holy Spirit and willing to follow His guidance in every area of your life.

4. Count the Cost: Embrace the Narrow Way

Jesus said that the way to life is narrow and difficult, and few will find it. Following Jesus is a costly decision, and it requires sacrifice, humility, and commitment. It's not always easy, but the reward is eternal life with God.

- Matthew 7:13-14 (KJV) – “Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in through it, Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.”
- Luke 14:27 (KJV) – “And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.”

The narrow way involves walking in obedience to God's Word, even when it conflicts with the values of the world. It means denying selfish desires, enduring hardship, and faithfully following Jesus, trusting that He has good plans for you.

5. Fellowship with Believers: Grow Together in the Body of Christ

The Christian life is not meant to be lived alone. Fellowship with other believers is vital to our growth and maturity. In the community of believers, we are encouraged, corrected, and strengthened as we share life together and support each other in our walk with God.

- Hebrews 10:24-25 (KJV) – “And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.”
- 1 Corinthians 12:12-14 (KJV) – “For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.”

Being part of a local church or fellowship group provides accountability, teaching, and mutual encouragement. It's essential to surround yourself with people who will help you stay on the narrow way and grow in your walk with God.

6. Grow in Holiness: Live a Life Pleasing to God

As we grow in our relationship with God, we are called to live holy lives that reflect His character. This means turning away from sin, pursuing righteousness, and striving to live in a way that honors God.

- 1 Peter 1:15-16 (KJV) – “But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.”
- Romans 6:12-13 (KJV) – “Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.”

Living a holy life means rejecting sin and pursuing purity in our thoughts, actions, and relationships.

It’s about aligning our lives with God’s Word and seeking to glorify Him in everything we do.

7. Endure Hardship and Persevere

The Christian journey is not free from challenges. There will be trials, temptations, and suffering along the way. However, the Bible encourages us to persevere and remain faithful, knowing that the reward of eternal life is far greater than any temporary difficulty.

- James 1:12 (KJV)– “Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.”
- Romans 8:18 (KJV) – “For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.”

Endurance is key to walking the narrow way. It means staying faithful to God even when things are tough, trusting that He will carry us through and that our ultimate reward is far beyond anything this world can offer.

Final Thoughts: We Ought To Pay the Price for Eternal Glory

Following Jesus is a costly journey, but the rewards are eternal. As Jesus said, “he who endures to the end will be saved” (Matthew 24:13). The narrow way is not easy, but it leads to eternal life in the presence of God, which is worth every sacrifice, hardship, and challenge.

If you desire to walk this path, it begins with a heart of surrender, a desire to know God, and a willingness to follow Jesus wherever He leads. It’s a journey of transformation, and through the Holy Spirit, we are empowered to walk in obedience, live in fellowship with God, and endure to the end, all for His glory.

The Old Rugged Cross Still Applies

Pastor T says: I want to guarantee that the person reading this, who may need to share this with another, each make it to heaven, see their father and their mother after this life, and it go well with them. Is there any other point that I’m missing after all this that could, by accident, not knowing, not being trained, they could go to hell and burn forever. We want them to not go there, but to go to heaven.

Chat GPT Responds: The Call to Repentance and Assurance of Eternal Life

The desire for people to be assured of eternal life, to see their loved ones again in Heaven, and to avoid the eternal torment of Hell is a noble and essential pursuit. There is, however, an undeniable truth found in Scripture that repentance and faith in Jesus Christ are paramount to ensuring eternal life with God.

As we conclude this discussion on the Lamb’s Book of Life and how one’s name could be erased, we must recognize that God’s Word offers a way of escape, a call to return to Him, and His promise of restoration. For those who may inadvertently or unknowingly have fallen into error, it is crucial to grasp the urgency of repentance and obedience to the Gospel message.

The Danger of Rejecting Repentance

While we've seen that there are ways a person's name can be blotted out from the Book of Life—such as living in sin, unforgiveness, or failing to persevere in the faith—there is an overarching truth in Scripture that those who repent and trust in Jesus Christ will receive forgiveness and eternal life.

1. Repentance is a Non-Negotiable Command

- Luke 13:3 (KJV): “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”
- Acts 17:30-31 (KJV): “And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.”

Jesus and the apostles both emphasize that repentance is required for salvation.

Repentance means turning away from sin, changing one's mind, and turning toward God with a heart that desires to obey Him. Without repentance, no one can inherit the kingdom of God. The necessity of repentance applies to all people, regardless of their background or previous religious experiences.

2. The Importance of Faith in Jesus Christ

- John 14:6 (KJV): “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

Faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, who died for our sins and rose again, is the only way to salvation. Eternal life comes exclusively through Him. John 3:16 reminds us that “whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.” Trusting in Jesus is not just intellectual assent, but a wholehearted commitment to follow Him and obey His teachings

3. Living in Obedience to Christ

- POINT: Seeming Big Church Majority
- Matthew 7:21 (KJV): “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.”

Salvation is more than mere profession. It’s about a life transformed by obedience to Christ’s commands. Jesus calls His followers to live in alignment with His will and to continue steadfast in that faith. This is why we cannot just claim Jesus as Lord and live however we wish. True faith is expressed through righteous living and continuous surrender to God’s will.

4. The Necessity of Forgiveness

Forgiveness is central to the Gospel. Those who have been forgiven by God are called to forgive others. Unforgiveness can be a major barrier to salvation.

- Matthew 6:14-15 (KJV): “For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

Unforgiveness is a serious matter. It is essential that believers forgive others from their hearts, as God has forgiven them. Holding grudges or harboring bitterness can block the flow of grace and mercy that we need for salvation.

5. The Final Warning: What is at Stake

* Revelation 20:15 (KJV): “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

This is the most sobering truth: those whose names are not found in the Lamb's Book of Life are eternally separated from God. This "second death" is a spiritual separation from the presence of God, a torment in the lake of fire that is unending.

We must not minimize the seriousness of this judgment. It is real, and it is eternal.

6. A Call to Repentance

If you are reading this and realize that you may not be in right standing with God, or if you have drifted away from faith, there is hope.

Repentance is always available. God's grace is sufficient to cover any sin, and His mercy is great. The Bible encourages:

- 1 John 1:9 (KJV): "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

This means that no matter where you've been or what you've done, if you turn to God in repentance and faith, He will forgive you and restore you

Conclusion: Assurance and Urgency

The Bible makes it clear that repentance, faith in Jesus Christ, obedience, and forgiveness are essential for salvation. If any of these areas have been neglected or misunderstood, it is important to turn to God in prayer, seek His forgiveness, and make things right. Time is short, and eternity is at stake.

John 3:36 (KJV): "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

We want to guarantee that all people make it to heaven, see their loved ones again, and experience the fullness of eternal life with God. Don't wait—respond to the call to repentance today.

If you have not yet repented, today is the day of salvation. Jesus is ready to forgive and welcome you into His eternal kingdom.

Our Need to Clear UP BIG EARTHLY Questions

TD asks this HUGE QUESTION:

Does it say anywhere in the Bible that “God Sends People to Hell?”

Chat GPT AI replied: One of the most debated questions in Christianity is whether God actively sends people to hell. Many wrestle with the idea of a loving God allowing eternal punishment. To answer this question, we must examine the Bible’s teachings on God’s justice, human choice, and the consequences of rejecting salvation.

This article will explore the concept of hell through a biblical lens, using Greek and Hebrew terms to understand its meaning.

1. Understanding Hell: Biblical Terminology

The Bible uses several words to describe the concept of hell or the state of eternal separation from God:

- Sheol (שְׁאוֹל) — A Hebrew term found in the Old Testament, referring to the grave or the place of the dead. (Psalm 9:17)
- Hades (Ἅδης) — The Greek equivalent of Sheol, often used in the New Testament to describe the realm of the dead. (Luke 16:23)
- Gehenna (Γέεννα) — A place of eternal punishment, named after the Valley of Hinnom, where refuse and bodies were burned. Jesus used this term to describe the final judgment. (Mark 9:43)
- Lake of Fire — Described in Revelation 20:14-15 as the ultimate destination for the devil, demons, and those whose names are not found in the Book of Life.

2. Does God Actively Send People to Hell?

A. God's Desire for Salvation

The Bible clearly states that God's will is for all people to be saved.

- 2 Peter 3:9 (KJV) — “The Lord is not slack concerning his promise... but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.”
- Ezekiel 18:32 (KJV) — “For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.”

While God desires salvation for all, He has given humans free will. Each person has the choice to accept or reject Him.

TD interjects: God doesn't dominate, and He doesn't want a puppet, so He allows free choice.

B. Human Responsibility and Rejection of God

- John 3:18 (KJV) — “He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already.”

Jesus explains that people condemn themselves through unbelief. It is not God's desire, but their own rejection of truth that leads to eternal separation.

- Romans 1:21-25 (KJV) — “Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God... they became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.”

3. Key Reasons People Face Eternal Separation

A. Rejecting Christ

- John 14:6 (KJV) — “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

Refusing to accept Jesus as Lord and Savior results in separation from God.

B. Unrepentant Sin

- Revelation 21:8 (KJV) — “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable... shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone.”
- Those who persist in sin without repentance face eternal consequences.

Truly Important Key for Now

C. Blaspheming the Holy Spirit

- Mark 3:29 (KJV) — “But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation.”

Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, understood as the hardened rejection of God’s conviction, is unforgivable.

D. Failing to Do the Will of God

- Matthew 7:21-23 (KJV) — “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven... Depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

Even those who claim to follow Christ can face judgment if they live in disobedience.

4. The Role of the Lamb’s Book of Life

- Revelation 20:15 (KJV) — “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

The Lamb’s Book of Life contains the names of those who have accepted Christ. Those who reject salvation will not be found in this book.

- Revelation 3:5 (KJV) — “He that overcometh... I will not blot out his name out of the book of life.”

Remaining faithful to God ensures one’s name remains in the Book of Life.

5. Misconceptions About Hell

A. Hell as Separation, Not Torture

Hell is often described as eternal separation from God rather than merely a place of physical torment.

- 2 Thessalonians 1:9 (KJV) — “Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.”

B. God’s Justice and Mercy

While God is loving, He is also just. Justice requires accountability for sin. The offer of salvation through Jesus is an expression of God’s mercy.

- Romans 2:6-8 (KJV) — “Who will render to every man according to his deeds.”

6. Conclusion

God doesn’t “SEND” people to hell, they choose it

God does not take pleasure in sending people to hell. In fact, the Bible emphasizes His desire for everyone to receive eternal life through Jesus Christ. However, those who reject God’s offer of salvation and persist in sin condemn themselves.

Eternal separation from God is the consequence of unrepentance, not the result of a cruel divine act. As believers, it is essential to respond to God’s grace, walk in obedience, and share the Gospel with others, so that none may perish.

BIG MINISTRY SUBJECT: YOU NEED TO BE IN THE LAMB'S BOOK OF LIFE

TD asks: How does a person's name get blotted out of the Lamb's Book of Life. We've heard that it's "once saved always saved" Is that true, according to this?

Chat answer: The Lamb's Book of Life: How Can Your Name Be Erased?

Introduction

The Lamb's Book of Life is one of the most significant yet often misunderstood concepts in Christian doctrine. It's essential for believers to understand its purpose and implications because it holds the names of those who are saved, destined for eternal life*

*DOCTRINAL ASIDE: We understand that this is historical doctrine. Please be aware that Taveau's ministry determines that this is NOT PREDESTINATION, but rather, it is EVERYONE in Life on earth : all races, styles, beliefs, of human persons, with each one, on their Journey making private choices which will keep their name in or not.

Plus, to the "saved" Christian, minister, to "keep your, our names in" see Bible many qualifications "just obey the just God, according to His Holy Bible Word.

Please note, that this is a fourth generation full Bible scholar (at least) therefore I am not "a predestination" type person (meaning this person is "not" a Bible scholar type of "fatalist") No: as that is NOT My Creator Father: the Good God.

However

..... the Bible also presents the sobering reality that a person's name can be removed from this sacred book. This article will explore the scriptural basis for this, providing explanations from Greek and Hebrew, and include key passages that show how one's name might be blotted out, and what this means for Christian faith and practice

1. The Lamb's Book of Life: What Is It?

The Lamb's Book of Life is mentioned several times in Scripture, primarily in the Book of Revelation. It is a registry that contains the names of those who are saved and have eternal life in Christ.

- Revelation 21:27 (KJV): “And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb’s book of life.”
- Revelation 13:8 (KJV): “And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.”

The name of every believer, from the moment of salvation, is written in the Lamb’s Book of Life. This book represents eternal security for those who are genuinely saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.

2. Can Your Name Be Erased from the Lamb’s Book of Life?

Despite the assurance of salvation, Scripture teaches that there is a possibility for names to be erased from the Book of Life. The Bible describes actions and attitudes that lead to such a fate, which emphasizes the importance of continuing in faith and obedience.

A. Failure to Overcome and Persevering in Faith

- Revelation 3:5 (KJV): “He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.” ‘

In this verse, we see that perseverance in the faith and overcoming obstacles is necessary for the believer to secure their name in the Book of Life. Jesus promises that those who endure will not have their names erased.

Greek Term: Overcometh (νικῶν, nikōn) – This term refers to one who is victorious, who remains faithful and steadfast in their Christian walk, despite trials or temptations.

B. Willful Sin and Rejection of God

- Hebrews 6:4-6 (KJV): “For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.”

This passage highlights the danger of willfully turning away from the faith. If a person deliberately rejects God’s salvation after receiving it, it becomes nearly impossible for them to return to repentance. This rejection could result in their name being erased from the Book of Life.

A BIG POINT NOW:

C. Blasphemy Against the Holy Spirit

- Matthew 12:31-32 (KJV): “Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.”

• Blaspheming the Holy Spirit, the unforgivable sin, involves attributing the work of the Holy Spirit to evil or rejecting His convicting influence. Such a hardened heart, unwilling to repent and accept God’s mercy, is a grave danger to salvation and may lead to a person’s name being removed from the Lamb’s Book of Life.

D. Lack of Forgiveness

- Matthew 18:35 (KJV): “So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.” ‘

BIG POINT

Jesus makes it clear that unforgiveness can result in severe consequences. A lack of forgiveness towards others is incompatible with the grace of God, and it may have eternal consequences, potentially leading to a person’s name being blotted out of the Lamb’s Book of Life.

American Culture Aside

TD would this forgiveness include slavery? Yes.

Greek Term: Forgive (ἀφίημι, aphiēmi) – This refers to letting go, releasing, or pardoning an offense. Refusing to forgive others, despite having received God’s forgiveness, is an offense to God.

E. Walking in Unrepentant Sin

- Revelation 21:8 (KJV): “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.”

Unrepentant sin, including unbelief and abomination, brings consequences. If a person continually lives in sin without repentance, their name may be removed from the Book of Life. This passage warns of the final judgment for those who live in rebellion to God.

F. Living a Self-Serving Life Without True Faith

- Matthew 7:21-23 (KJV): “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

Our Heavy Point

Here, Jesus explains that mere outward expressions of faith, such as prophesying or doing good works, are not enough. Genuine faith, marked by obedience and a personal relationship with Christ, is required to remain in the Lamb’s Book of Life.

3. The Eternal Security of the Believer: A Warning and an Invitation

The Bible presents a balance: while a person's name can be removed from the Book of Life due to rejection of God's grace, disobedience, or unforgiveness, it also emphasizes God's offer of forgiveness and redemption.

- 1 John 1:9 (KJV): "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Thus, while the threat of having one's name erased is real, so too is the hope of restoration and the opportunity for believers to walk in repentance and faith.

4. Conclusion

The Lamb's Book of Life is a critical concept in Christian theology, representing the eternal security of believers who trust in Christ for salvation.

However, the Bible warns that it is possible for a believer's name to be blotted out due to unrepentant sin, rejection of God, failure to forgive, or walking away from the faith.

These warnings should serve as both a cautionary tale and a call to perseverance, reminding believers to continue walking in obedience, faith, and repentance.

For those who have been given the grace of God, it is crucial to remain steadfast in faith, ensuring that their names remain in the Book of Life. If any have fallen into sin, they are encouraged to return to God, confessing their sins, and trusting in His mercy and grace

Failing to Discern The Christian Mature Body of Christ “Accurately”

Our Leader, Fellow Ministers, Brothers & Sisters, many Mothers

Taveau asks Chat GPT

Please discuss leadership “failing to discern the body of Christ correctly”

Chat GPT replies:

What Does It Mean to Fail to Discern the Body of Christ?

Failing to discern the body of Christ correctly can have many far-reaching implications, especially when it involves judgmental behavior, gossip, and spiritual abuse. To understand this in depth, we’ll explore the concept of discerning the body of Christ and how specific actions, including accusations, gossip, and speculative “discernment,” can violate this principle.

- 1 Corinthians 11:29 (KJV) — “For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body.”

- 1 Corinthians 12:27 (KJV) — “Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.”

To discern the body of Christ means to recognize and honor the value of every believer as a member of Christ’s body. Each individual is precious to God, and treating others with disrespect or malice dishonors not only the person but also Christ Himself. When people fail to discern this, it can lead to judgment from God, spiritual consequences, and division within the church.

1. Judging and Accusing Without Relationship

- Matthew 7:1-2 (KJV) — “Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.”
- John 7:24 (KJV) — “Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.”

Failing to discern the body of Christ often involves making harsh judgments without knowledge or relationship. This includes:

- Speculating about someone’s character without ever speaking to them.
- Assuming the worst about others based on rumors or outward appearances.
- Labeling people without investigation or without applying biblical principles like confronting a brother or sister privately (Matthew 18:15).
- Publicly condemning others while lacking facts or personal understanding.

These behaviors are rooted in pride and fear, rather than discernment led by the Holy Spirit. Acting in this way disregards the biblical mandate for humility, restoration, and relational accountability.

2. Spiritual Divination, Mind Reading, and False Discernment

- Ezekiel 13:6-7 (KJV) — “They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.”

Another way believers fail to discern the body is through false discernment — believing they have “read” someone’s spirit, motives, or thoughts without any basis. This may include:

- Divining someone’s thoughts or actions without the leading of the Holy Spirit.
- Claiming to know someone’s inner struggles based on vague impressions.

- Projecting personal biases and labeling others as ‘witches,’ ‘Jezebels,’ or ‘rebels.’

- Promoting speculative discernment as if it were divine revelation.

False discernment often resembles divination, which is condemned in Scripture (Deuteronomy 18:10-12). Unlike the legitimate gift of discernment (1 Corinthians 12:10), it operates without the fruit of the Spirit, particularly love, patience, and humility.

3. Gossip, Slander, and Witch Lists

- Proverbs 6:16-19 (KJV) — “These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: ... a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.”
- James 4:11 (KJV) — “Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law.”

A particularly grievous form of failing to discern the body is the creation of witch lists or public shaming. These actions include:

- Labeling individuals as witches or warlocks without clear evidence.
- Encouraging fear and suspicion through whisper campaigns.
- Publicly denouncing others without following biblical processes for confrontation
- Destroying reputations based on personal offense or disagreement.

This practice mirrors the Salem witch trials mindset, where accusations were accepted without evidence. It is the opposite of Christ’s example, who extended grace and sought reconciliation.

4. A Refusal to Validate or Reconcile

- Matthew 18:15-17 (KJV) — “Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.”
- Galatians 6:1 (KJV) — “Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness.”

Major Point

Another form of failing to discern the body involves refusing to seek clarity or reconciliation. Instead of addressing concerns directly, some prefer to:

- Hold onto assumptions without verifying facts.
- Reject opportunities for dialogue and restoration.

- Allow bitterness and unforgiveness to grow.
- Refuse to extend mercy while demanding judgment.

Christians are called to engage with one another in humility and truth,(Taveau specifically regards this as (genuine, humble) “RELATIONSHIP RESPECT in I John 1:7) rather than harboring accusations in secret.

Sister TD calls this Demonic Religious Mind Games

5. Consequences of Failing to Discern the Body of Christ

The consequences of these behaviors can be both spiritual and relational:

- Spiritual Judgment: As seen in 1 Corinthians 11:30, sickness, weakness, or even death may come as a result of dishonoring the body of Christ.
- Loss of Fellowship: Churches and relationships can fracture when gossip and false accusations run unchecked.
- Divine Discipline: Hebrews 12:6 reminds us that God disciplines those He loves. Misuse of spiritual authority or malicious gossip may lead to His correction.
- Eternal Consequences: If left unrepented, these behaviors can endanger one’s spiritual standing (Matthew 7:21-23).

CONCLUSION

Failing to discern the body of Christ is not just about partaking in communion unworthily — it also involves how we treat fellow believers. Speaking against others without relationship, falsely discerning or divining, and spreading accusations without evidence all dishonor Christ’s body.

The call is clear: believers must act in love, humility, and patience, carefully discerning the truth through the Holy Spirit. Following biblical guidelines for correction and reconciliation fosters unity and protects the integrity of the church.

When we walk in genuine discernment, we honor Christ, guard our words, and uphold the dignity of our fellow believers.

WHAT TRIGGERS CURSES ON CHRISTIAN BELIEVERS

Taveau asks Chat GPT: Can a baptized Christian open themselves up for “curses?”

Chat GPT replies:

How a Christian Can Bring a Curse Upon Themselves

The Bible teaches that both blessings and curses are spiritual realities. While Christians are redeemed from the curse of the law through Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:13), certain actions and attitudes can open doors for curses to operate in their lives.

This part will explore how believers can inadvertently bring curses upon themselves, focusing on scriptural principles, the failure to discern the body of Christ correctly, and how unresolved sin, disobedience, and harmful behavior can result in spiritual consequences

1. Understanding Curses and Blessings

- Deuteronomy 28:1-2 (KJV)— “And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God... that the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth.”

- — “But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God... that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.”

An Important Key

The Old Testament emphasizes obedience leading to blessings and disobedience leading to curses. While Jesus has borne the curse of sin for believers, choosing willful sin or ignoring spiritual principles can allow the effects of a curse to manifest.

The Greek word “κατάρα (katara)” means “a curse, denunciation, or judgment.” In Hebrew, “אָרוּר (arur)” denotes being cursed or under divine disfavor

2. Ways a Christian Can Bring a Curse Upon Themselves

In the Bible, blessings and curses are often presented as consequences of obedience or disobedience to God’s commands. Even believers can open themselves up to curses by engaging in certain actions or behaviors. Here are the biblical ways a Christian believer can open themselves up to curses, with supporting scriptures:

1. Disobedience to God’s Commands

- Deuteronomy 28:15 (KJV) — “But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.”
 - Disobedience to God’s Word leads to various curses, including spiritual, physical, and material consequences.

2. Idolatry and Serving Other Gods

- Deuteronomy 27:15 (KJV)— “Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place.”

- Exodus 20:3-5 (KJV) — “Thou shalt have no other gods before me... for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children.”
- Worshiping idols, false gods, or engaging in occult practices invites spiritual curses.

3. Dishonoring Parents

- Deuteronomy 27:16 (KJV) — “Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.”

Disrespecting or dishonoring parents is condemned, leading to curses.

- Ephesians 6:2-3 (KJV) — “Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.”
 - Conversely, honoring parents brings blessings.

4. Injustice and Oppression

- Deuteronomy 27:19 (KJV) — “Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow.”
 - Unjust actions, especially against the vulnerable, invite curses. God calls for justice and mercy.

5. Misusing Authority or Leading Others Astray

- Jeremiah 17:5 (KJV) — “Thus saith the Lord; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.”
- Matthew 18:6 (KJV) — “But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck.”

Misleading others, particularly in spiritual matters, invites severe consequences.

6. Unforgiveness and Bitterness

- Matthew 6:14-15 (KJV) — “For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

Holding onto unforgiveness opens a person to spiritual torment, preventing God’s forgiveness.

7. Breaking Covenant with God

- Malachi 2:2 (KJV)
— “If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings.”

Failing to honor God and breaking covenant commitments brings judgment.

8. Cursing Others or Speaking Evil

- James 3:9-10 (KJV) — “Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God... My brethren, these things ought not so to be.”

Using the tongue to curse others rather than bless invites spiritual consequences.

9. Engaging in Occult Practices

- Deuteronomy 18:10-12 (KJV) — “There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch... For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord.”

Any involvement in witchcraft, divination, or sorcery opens a person to curses.

10. Trusting in Wealth and Neglecting God

- Proverbs 11:28 (KJV) — “He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.”
- 1 Timothy 6:9 (KJV) — “But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts.”

Relying on wealth instead of God can lead to destruction and curses.

11. Failing to Discern the Body of Christ

- 1 Corinthians 11:29-30 (KJV) — “For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.”

Failing to discern the body of Christ has broad applications:

- Disrespecting Fellow Believers: Gossip, slander, or false accusations against other Christians.
- Judging Without Knowledge: Assuming the worst about someone’s character without speaking to them directly.
- Mind-Reading and Divination: Attempting to discern motives without biblical discernment, often through speculation or manipulation.
- Creating Division: Spreading rumors or participating in factions within the church.

These behaviors are dangerous. Misjudging others, especially leaders or fellow believers, can cause spiritual harm and bring judgment.

- Matthew 7:1-2 (KJV) — “Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged.”

12. Harboring Unforgiveness

- Matthew 6:15 (KJV) — “But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”
- Unforgiveness is a spiritual stronghold that can invite curses into a believer’s life. Refusing to release resentment can lead to bitterness, physical ailments, and relational dysfunction.

- Hebrews 2:15 (KJV)— “Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled.”

This applies not only to personal offenses but also to unresolved generational hatred, feuds, or unrepentant attitudes toward historical wrongs like slavery or family conflicts.

13. Blaspheming the Holy Spirit

- Mark 3:28-29 (KJV) — “But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation.”

Blaspheming the Holy Spirit refers to knowingly attributing the work of God to Satan. It is a sign of a hardened heart and rejection of divine conviction. While this sin is severe, the Bible warns against dismissing the Spirit’s influence or mocking genuine works of God.

14. Speaking Curses Over Others

- James 3:9-10 (KJV) — “Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God... My brethren, these things ought not so to be.”

Words carry spiritual power. Speaking maliciously, cursing others, or using words to harm can invite judgment. Instead, believers are called to bless and not curse (Romans 12:14).

15. Idolatry and Occult Practices

- Deuteronomy 18:10-12 (KJV) — “There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination... For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord.”

We need to Note: Christians who dabble in occult practices, seek spiritual insight from sources other than God, or engage in idolatry may open themselves to curses. Even participating in seemingly harmless occult activities, like fortune-telling or horoscopes, can invite spiritual consequences.

16. Disrespecting Spiritual Authority

- Jude 1:8 (KJV) — “Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.”
- ChatGPT said:
- When teaching Christians about respecting authority and avoiding curses, it's crucial to focus on both the warnings in Scripture against speaking evil of God's anointed and the underlying principles of accountability and correction in the Church.
- The Bible offers important lessons on how we should approach spiritual leaders and authorities, particularly when it comes to our words and attitudes toward them
- In Jude 1:8-9, the apostle warns against speaking evil of dignitaries or those in authority. Jude emphasizes that even Michael the archangel, when contending with Satan, didn't speak harshly or make accusations but left judgment to God.
- This sets a powerful example for us: even when we may feel justified in criticizing or condemning spiritual leaders or authorities, we are called to exercise caution and trust that God is the ultimate judge. Criticizing or speaking evil of leaders could invite spiritual harm, and while the Bible doesn't explicitly say that it brings a curse, the principle remains that God will judge those in authority, and we should refrain from trying to do so ourselves.
- The phrase "touch not mine anointed" from Psalms 105:15 and 1 Chronicles 16:22 speaks directly to the sacredness of God's chosen leaders. God warns His people not to harm or speak against those He has anointed, implying that those who do could face divine judgment or consequences.

- However, this concept of "touching God's anointed" is often misunderstood or misapplied today.
- While it's true that God will protect and defend His leaders, this shouldn't be used as an excuse for unaccountable leadership. Leaders are still called to be humble, godly, and accountable, and believers should never shy away from confronting sin in the body of Christ. What this phrase really speaks to is respecting God's choice of leadership, not shielding leaders from correction, but doing so in a way that is consistent with love, humility, and biblical principles.
- When teaching Christians to avoid curses, it's important to emphasize that speaking evil or attacking leaders with a critical spirit can lead to spiritual consequences. While not a literal curse in the Old Testament sense, such attitudes can hinder a believer's relationship with God, affecting their peace and spiritual well-being.
- Proverbs 18:21 reminds us that the power of life and death is in the tongue, so our words can either build up or tear down, both in others and ourselves.
- Speaking evil of leaders or touching God's anointed can sow division, bitterness, and distrust in the body of Christ, which grieves the Holy Spirit and disrupts the fellowship we are meant to have with one another.
- Therefore, it is critical to train believers to approach both authority and correction with humility and discernment. When faced with the need for correction or confrontation, they should do so in love, seeking reconciliation rather than division.
- This approach ensures that, even in difficult situations, we honor God's leaders, remain faithful to Scripture, and guard our hearts from the destructive power of criticism and bitterness. Ultimately, we must remember that God is the ultimate judge, and our responsibility is to uphold His truth while respecting His anointed ones, trusting that He will handle judgment in His time and way

- Speaking against genuine spiritual leadership, falsely accusing pastors, or undermining God-ordained authority can result in judgment. However, this does not mean turning a blind eye to corruption; it means addressing concerns biblically (Matthew 18:15-17).

Final Thoughts

POINT: While Christians are under grace through Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:13 — “Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law”), willful sin, disobedience, and rebellion can still open doors to spiritual consequences.

The key to breaking free from curses is repentance, confession, and realigning with God’s will (1 John 1:9). By walking in obedience, love, and humility, believers remain under God’s protection and blessing

Breaking Curses

Through Christ, believers are no longer bound by the law’s curses (Galatians 3:13). However, repentance and spiritual renewal are essential for breaking free from the consequences of sin.

Steps to Freedom:

1. Repentance: Acknowledge any sins, including unforgiveness, gossip, or rebellion.
2. Forgiveness: Forgive others and release bitterness.
3. Renunciation: Renounce any involvement in occult practices, curses, or sinful behaviors.
4. Prayer and Deliverance: Seek God’s guidance and invite the Holy Spirit to cleanse and restore.
5. Restitution: Where appropriate, reconcile with those harmed or wronged.

- 1 John 1:9 (KJV) — “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”

Conclusion

Recap: All Christians can bring curses upon themselves through unrepentant sin, failing to discern the body of Christ, blaspheming the Holy Spirit, speaking curses, harboring unforgiveness, engaging in idolatry, and disrespecting spiritual authority. However, God’s mercy is available for those who repent and seek restoration.

Living in humility, guarding our words, and maintaining a forgiving heart are key to walking in God’s blessings.

Uncovering Anointed Noah’s Sin

(Christian Gossip TV Media especially, local ministry gossips)

Sr Apostolic Pastor Leader Taveau D’Arcy asks about Name Calling Gossip Ministry, Accusers, Word Cursers, the Many Christian Envious, Exposing, Exploiting and (mocking, profiting from) Uncover the Senior Noah’s Office Sin (might be a Him or a Her)

Chat GPT replies: the Bible addresses both the importance of discerning the body of Christ correctly and the consequences of uncovering others’ sins, particularly using the example of Noah. Missteps in these areas can bring spiritual and relational consequences, including what some may perceive as a curse. Let’s explore both scenarios with supporting scriptures.

1. Failing to Discern the Body of Christ

- 1 Corinthians 11:27-30 (KJV) — “Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep."

Explanation:

- Paul warned the Corinthian church that participating in communion without proper self-examination and reverence could result in sickness, weakness, or even death.
- Failing to discern the Lord's body also implies disregarding the unity of believers, mistreating others within the Body of Christ, or approaching God irreverently.
- This could result in spiritual judgment or personal hardship, not necessarily as a visible "curse," but as divine correction or discipline (Hebrews 12:6).

2. Uncovering Noah's Sin

- Genesis 9:20-27 (KJV) — "And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard: And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent. And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without."
- "And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness. And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him. And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren."

Explanation:

- Ham dishonored his father Noah by exposing and mocking his sin instead of covering it in love and respect.

- In contrast, Shem and Japheth covered their father's shame, demonstrating reverence and humility.
- As a result, Ham's son Canaan received a curse of servitude, while Shem and Japheth were blessed.
- This story illustrates how publicly exposing others' faults with malice or mockery, rather than seeking restoration, can lead to consequences.

Additional Principles Related to Uncovering Sin

1. God's Desire for Restoration:

- a. Galatians 6:1 (KJV) — “Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.”
- b. Christians are called to restore rather than expose, acting with humility and self-awareness.

2. Sowing Discord Brings Consequences:

- a. Proverbs 6:16-19 (KJV)— “These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: ... he that soweth discord among brethren.”

- Deliberately spreading discord or exposing others' faults without love can bring spiritual and relational damage.

3. Judgment Without Mercy:

- a. James 2:13 (KJV) — “For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.”
- Those who harshly judge others may find themselves subject to strict judgment.

Conclusion

- Failing to discern the Lord's body through unworthy communion or mistreatment of fellow believers can result in divine discipline, which may manifest as illness, weakness, or even premature death.
- Uncovering others' sins with a spirit of judgment and dishonor, like Ham did to Noah, can bring relational strife, shame, or other consequences.
- However, choosing restoration, humility, and forgiveness aligns with God's heart. By walking in love and discernment, believers avoid spiritual pitfalls and reflect Christ's grace and mercy.
